FUTURE RECEIVABLE PURCHASE AGREEMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

ARTICLE 1: PURCHASE AND SALE OF FUTURE RECEIVABLES

SECTION 1.1 DEPOSITS. In exchange for the foregoing, Merchant shall:

- a. Deposit all Future Sale Proceeds into the bank account identified on Page Nine (9) of this Agreement (the “Bank Account”);
- b. Identify for Purchaser all other existing and future bank accounts maintained or used by Merchant;
- c. Not deposit any funds into the Bank Account other than Future Sale Proceeds (and, if any such deposits of funds other than Future Sale Proceeds are made, notify Merchant as soon as reasonably practicable);
- d. Enter into a Credit Card processing agreement reasonably acceptable to and approved by Purchaser with a Credit Card Processor (the “Credit Card Processor”), who shall serve as Merchant’s sole Credit Card Processor for credit and card transactions and related services; and in the event that Merchant’s current credit card processor is not deemed acceptable to Purchaser, at Purchaser’s sole discretion, Merchant shall, within two (2) business days of its receipt of the request to do so, shall, at its sole cost and expense, terminate its relationship with the Credit Card Processor and exclusively engage the services of an alternative credit card processor that Purchaser approves in writing and enter into any Merchant credit card processing agreement as the alternative credit card the Credit Card Processor may require (so long as the fees and costs charged to Merchant by the new Credit Card Processor are no higher, in the aggregate, than the fees previously charged by Merchant’s original Credit Card Processor).
- e. Instruct the Credit Card Processor to deposit all Credit Card receipts of Merchant into the Bank Account.
- f. At Purchaser’s request, Purchaser may review any Credit Card processing agreement that Merchant has entered into before the date of this Agreement, and Purchaser may approve or reject, any Credit Card processing agreement, at Purchaser’s sole discretion. The effective date of this Agreement is the date on which Purchaser signs this Agreement on Page One hereof.

SECTION 1.2 TRANSFERS AND TRANSACTIONS.

Merchant authorized Purchaser and its agents and representatives to initiate electronic checks or ACH transactions in amounts specified in Section 1.3, until Purchaser has received an amount equal to the Purchased Amount. Merchant authorizes the bank holding the Bank Account (the “Bank”) and all applicable third parties, to provide Purchaser and its agents and representatives all information necessary to permit them to determine the amount to be paid to Merchant and initiate such electronic check or ACH transactions.

SECTION 1.3 AUTHORIZATIONS.

- a. On each day after the date of this Agreement, Merchant authorizes Purchaser in accordance with Section 1.2, to initiate electronic checks or ACH transactions from the Bank Account in an amount not to exceed on any one day the Initial Daily Transfer Amount. The amount paid by the Credit Card Processor to Purchaser plus the amount transferred from the Bank Account to Purchaser on any one day shall not exceed the Initial Daily Transfer Amount, until Purchaser determines a new Daily Transfer Amount.
- b. On the 15th and 30th day of each calendar month (or on the last day of any calendar month with fewer than 30 days), Purchaser may evaluate the amounts received from the Bank Accounts to determine a new Daily Transfer Amount. If the 15th or 30th day of any calendar month (or the last day of any calendar month with fewer than 30 days) falls on a weekend, then Purchaser may determine the new Daily Transfer amount on the next business day.
- c. Merchant shall provide Purchaser with online access to the Bank Account (or, at Purchaser’s request, provide bank statements showing the activity related to the Bank Account within three (3) business days of receiving any bank statement from the Bank).
- d. Merchant also hereby authorizes Purchaser to obtain any bank statement directly from the Bank and any other financial institution(s) for the Bank Account and for any other bank accounts in the name of Merchant or Guarantor(s).
- e. Purchaser shall use reasonable business practices to calculate Daily Transfer Amounts so that Purchaser is receiving, over the term of this Agreement, the approximate Purchased Percentage of each Credit Card receivable due to Merchant and the Purchased Percentage of all other deposits made into the Bank Account. From time to time, Purchaser may initiate an electronic check or ACH transaction from the Bank Account to increase the total amount received by Purchaser up to an amount that equals the total Purchased Percentage of each Credit Receivable due to Merchant and the Purchased Percentage of all deposits made into the Bank Account. Purchaser also may, at any time, and in its sole discretion, change the time for calculating the Daily Transfer Amount and calculate the Purchased Percentage due under this Agreement on a Daily basis instead of on a bi-weekly basis.

- f. Except as provided in Section 1.4, Purchaser will have no obligation to refund any amounts to Merchant, except that if at the end of this Agreement Purchaser has collected any amounts in excess of the total Purchased Amount, Purchaser shall promptly return such excess to Merchant.

SECTION 1.4 UNAUTHORIZED DEPOSITS. If at any time Merchant informs Purchaser or Purchaser learns that a deposit has been made into the Bank Account that represents something other than Future Sale Proceeds, and Purchaser has removed the Purchased Percentage from such deposit, Purchaser shall, at its discretion:

- a. return such amount to the Bank Account, or
- b. Reconcile the overpayment by reducing the Daily Transfer Amounts for an appropriate period of time.

SECTION 1.5 PROCESSING FEE. Merchant shall pay Purchaser a processing fee as stated on Page One (1) of this Agreement at the time Merchant signs this Agreement.

SECTION 1.6 SECURITY INTEREST. As security for all “Obligations” (as herein defined), Merchant hereby grants to Purchaser a continuing security interest in, and, as applicable, a general lien upon and/or a right of setoff against, all of Merchant’s presently existing and hereafter created Receivables, General Intangibles (as such term is defined in the Uniform Commercial Code), including, without limitation, any claims for tax refunds from any governmental authority due or to become due to Merchant which claims are hereby assigned to Purchaser, all proceeds of letters of credit, all credit balances with Purchaser, all instruments, all deposit accounts, all computer programs, software, licenses and permits and all Merchant’s property of every kind and description, tangible or intangible, at any time in Purchaser’s possession or subject to Purchaser’s control, whether now or hereafter arising or now owned or hereafter acquired and wherever located and all proceeds of the foregoing. As used herein, the term “Obligations” means and includes all indebtedness, liabilities, obligations, debit balances, covenants and duties owing by Merchant to Purchaser of every kind and description (whether now or hereafter existing and whether arising under this Agreement or otherwise), direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, due or to become due, including, without limitation, any indebtedness, liabilities or obligations owing by Merchant to others which Purchaser has acquired by assignment, participation or otherwise, and further including, without limitation, all interest, fees, charges, expenses and attorneys’ fees for which Merchant may be obligated hereunder. . Merchant hereby authorizes Purchaser to file one or more Financing Statements (UCC-1) evidencing this security interest and sale of the Purchased Amount of Future Sale Proceeds under this Agreement, and any Continuation Statement or Amendments thereof, and ratifies and affirms the filing of any Financing Statement filed by Purchaser prior to the effectiveness of this Agreement. The Uniform Commercial Code (“UCC”) Financing Statement shall include a statement that the sale of the Future Sale Proceeds of Merchant is intended to be a sale of future receivables and not an assignment for security. The UCC Financing Statement shall further state that Merchant is prohibited from incurring any debt, transferring future receivables, or sale proceeds to any other person or granting any security interest in its accounts receivable or other assets until Purchaser has received all amounts due under this Agreement. If Merchant has fully performed all of Merchant’s obligations under this Agreement, Purchaser shall cause the filing of a Termination Statement (UCC-3) within the time required by law following Merchant’s written demand. In addition, Merchant shall, from time to time, promptly execute and deliver any and all instruments and documents, and take all future action that may be deemed necessary or appropriate by Purchaser, or that Purchaser may request, in order to perfect against Merchant and all third parties, the sale of the Purchased Amount of Future Sale Proceeds under this Agreement and/or to enable Purchaser to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies under this Agreement. Purchaser reserves the right to obtain reimbursement from Merchant for all costs associated with the filing of any UCC Financing Statements.

SECTION 1.7 ADJUSTMENTS TO THE SPECIFIC AMOUNT.

The Disbursement Amount is intended to represent the Purchased Percentage of the Merchant’s Receivables each calendar month. At any time, Purchaser may adjust the Disbursement Amount so that the amount received by Purchaser in the future more closely represents the Purchased Percentage. Also, once each calendar month Merchant may request that Purchaser reconcile Merchant's actual receipts and adjust the Disbursement Amount so that the amount received by Purchaser in the future more closely represents the Purchased Percentage. Upon receipt of a written reconciliation request from Merchant, Purchaser may request any and all information from Merchant that Purchaser, in its sole judgment, believes is necessary to accurately reconcile the amount Purchaser has received from Merchant with the actual Purchased Percentage. Purchaser shall not be required to adjust the Disbursement Amount until such time as it has received all such requested information.

ARTICLE 2: RECEIVABLES

SECTION 2.1 NOT A LOAN. Merchant and Purchaser acknowledge and agree that the Purchase Price paid by Purchaser in exchange for the Purchased Amount of Future Sale Proceeds is a purchase of the Purchased Amount (as defined on Page One (1)) and is not intended to be, nor shall it be construed as a loan from Purchaser to Merchant. Each Future Sale Proceeds purchased by Purchaser under this Agreement represents a bona fide sale by a Merchant to a customer. Each Future Sale Proceeds purchased by Purchaser Merchant is free and clear of all encumbrances and shall be owned free and clear by Merchant upon receipt (other than Merchant's obligations to Purchaser hereunder). Merchant acknowledges and agrees that it may use the Purchase Price solely for business purposes and not for personal, family or household purposes. Merchant is selling a portion of a future revenue stream to Purchaser at a discount, not borrowing money from Purchaser. There is no interest rate or payment schedule and no time period during which the Purchased Amount must be collected by Purchaser. Merchant going bankrupt or going out of business, in and of itself, does not constitute a breach of this Agreement. Purchaser is entering into this Agreement knowing the risks that Merchant's business may slow down or fail, and Purchaser assumes these risks based on Merchant's and Guarantor's representations, warranties and covenants in this Agreement, which are designed to give Purchaser a reasonable and fair opportunity to receive the benefit of its bargain.

SECTION 2.2 RECEIVABLES. For all purposes hereof, the term "Receivables" shall mean and include all accounts, contract rights, general intangibles, chattel papers, instruments, documents and all forms of obligations owing to Merchant arising from or out of the sale of merchandise and/or the rendition of services, all proceeds thereof, all Merchant's: a) rights to merchandise represented thereby; b) rights under insurance policies covering merchandise or services; c) rights against carriers of said merchandise; and d) right, title, security interests and guarantees with respect to each Receivable, including all rights of replevin and reclamation and stoppage in transit and all other rights of an unpaid Merchant of merchandise or services.

SECTION 2.3 WRITTEN SCHEDULES. Upon Purchaser's request, Merchant shall execute and deliver to Purchaser written schedules of all Receivables sold or assigned hereunder in form satisfactory to Purchaser, together with copies of customer's invoices or the equivalent and upon Purchaser's request, conclusive evidence of delivery for all goods sold or rendition of services and all other information or documents Purchaser may require. Merchant's failure to execute and deliver such schedule of Receivables shall not affect the assignment of such Receivables hereunder.

SECTION 2.4 COLLECTION OF PAYMENTS. As provided in this Section, the Purchased Percentage (as defined on Page One (1)) of each Future Sale Proceeds shall be collected by Purchaser from electronic check or ACH transactions initiated by Purchaser or its agents from the Bank Account. In the event that Merchant changes or permits the change of the Bank Account or the Credit Card Processor or adds an additional Bank Account or Credit Card Processor, Purchaser shall have the right, without waiving any of its other rights and remedies under this Agreement, and without notice to Merchant, to notify the new or additional Bank or Credit Card Processor of the sale of Future Sale Proceeds under this Agreement and to collect from such new or additional Bank or Credit Card Processor. Merchant, by executing this Agreement, hereby grants to Purchaser an irrevocable Power of Attorney, which Power of Attorney shall be coupled with an interest, and hereby appoints Purchaser or any of Purchaser's agents and representatives as Merchant's Attorney-in-Fact, to take any and all action necessary to direct such new or additional Bank or Credit Card Processor to make payment to Purchaser as contemplated by this Section 2.4.

SECTION 2.5 FULL FORCE AND EFFECT. This Agreement shall be in full force and effect until such time as the Purchased Amount of Future Sale Proceeds has been received by Purchaser from Merchant.

SECTION 2.6 USURY. In addition to the acknowledgements and understandings set forth in Section 2.1 above, it is the intent of the parties hereto not to violate any federal or state law, rule or regulation pertaining either to usury or to the contracting for or charging or collecting of interest, and Merchant and Purchaser agree that, should any provision of this Agreement, or any act performed hereunder or thereunder, violate any such law, rule or regulation, then the excess of interest contracted for or charged or collected over the maximum lawful rate of interest shall be applied to the outstanding principal indebtedness due to Purchaser by Merchant under this Agreement. Merchant agrees that the Purchase Price is in exchange for the Receivables pursuant to this Agreement, and that it equals the fair market value of such Receivables. Purchaser has purchased and shall own all of the Receivables described in this Agreement up to the full Purchased Amount as the Receivables are created. Payments made to Purchaser in respect to the full amount of the Receivables shall be conditioned upon Merchant's sale of products and services, and the payment therefore by Merchant's customers. In no event shall the aggregate of all amounts or any portion thereof be deemed as interest hereunder, and in the event it is found to be interest despite the parties hereto specifically representing that it is NOT interest – it shall be found that no sum charged or collected hereunder shall exceed the highest rate permissible at law. In the event that a court nonetheless determines that Purchaser has charged or received interest hereunder in excess of the highest applicable rate, the rate in effect hereunder shall automatically be reduced to the maximum rate permitted by applicable law and Purchaser shall promptly refund to Merchant any interest received by Purchaser in excess of the maximum lawful rate, it being understood that Merchant not pay or contract to pay, and that Purchaser not receive or contract to receive, directly or indirectly in any manner whatsoever, interest in excess of that which may be paid by Merchant under applicable law. As a result thereof, Merchant and Guarantor knowingly and willingly waive the defense of Usury in any action or proceeding.

ARTICLE 3: STATEMENTS AND REPORTS

SECTION 3.1 REPORTS. Merchant acknowledges and agrees that in connection with the execution of this Agreement, an Investigative or Consumer Report may be requested, received or made by Purchaser. Accordingly, Merchant authorizes the Purchase and its agents and representatives, and any and all credit reporting agency employed by Purchaser, to investigate any references given or any other statements of data obtained from or about Merchant or the Guarantor(s) for the purpose of this Agreement and to order, receive, and review credit reports concerning Merchant or the Guarantor(s) at any time now or in the future.

SECTION 3.2 STATEMENTS. Purchaser shall provide Merchant with a monthly statement evidencing the delivery and receipt of the Purchased Percentage to Purchaser from the Future Sale Proceeds of Merchant.

SECTION 3.3 ACCOUNTING RECORDS, AND PLACE OF BUSINESS. Purchaser or its agents and representatives shall have the right, during Merchant's normal business hours (and at any other reasonable time) to examine the interior and exterior of any of Merchant's places of business. Purchaser may examine, among other things, whether Merchant:

- a. has a place of business that is separate from any personal residence,
- b. is open for business, and
- c. has sufficient inventory to conduct Merchant's business.

When performing an examination, Purchaser may photograph the interior and exterior of any of Merchant's places of business, including any signage, and may photograph any Owner. Purchaser or any of its agents and representatives shall have the right to inspect, audit, check, and make extracts from any copies of the books, records, journals, orders, receipts, correspondence that relate to Merchant's accounts or other transactions between the parties in this Agreement, and the general financial condition of Merchant. Purchaser may remove any of such records temporarily for the purpose of having copies made thereof. Purchaser shall have the right to hire a Certified Public Accountant, licensed in the State of New York, to perform analysis of the accounting records for the purpose of determining if the Purchased Percentage from the Future Sale Proceeds has been made available for remittance to Purchaser. Merchant shall fully cooperate with such inspection, audit or analysis upon the request of Purchaser.

SECTION 3.4 AUTHORIZATION TO CONTACT MERCHANT AND/OR

GUARANTOR BY PHONE. Merchant and each Owner and Guarantor authorize Purchaser, its agents and representatives to contact Merchant and each Owner or Guarantor at any telephone number Merchant or any Owner and Guarantor provides to Purchaser, or from which Merchant or any Owner or Guarantor places a call to Purchaser, or any telephone number where Purchaser believes it may reach Merchant or any Owner or Guarantor, using any means of communication, including but not limited to calls or text messages to mobile, cellular, wireless or similar devices or calls or text messages using an automated telephone dialing system and/or artificial voices or prerecorded messages, even if Merchant and each Owner and Guarantor incurs charges for receiving such communications.

SECTION 3.5 AUTHORIZATION TO CONTACT MERCHANT AND/OR GUARANTOR BY OTHER MEANS. Merchant and each Owner and each Guarantor also agree that Purchaser and its agents and representatives may use any other medium not prohibited by law including, but not limited to, mail, e-mail and facsimile, to contact Merchant and each Owner and each Guarantor. Merchant and each Owner and Guarantor expressly consent to conduct business by electronic means.

ARTICLE 4: ACH AUTHORIZATION AND CREDIT CARD PROCESSING AGREEMENT

SECTION 4.1 ACH AUTHORIZATION. Simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, Merchant authorized Purchaser and its agents and representatives to initiate electronic check or ACH transactions equal to the Purchased Percentage of all Future Sale Proceeds of Merchant. Such authorization shall continue until Purchaser has received an amount equal to the Purchased Amount. Merchant further authorizes the Bank and its Credit Card Processor and all third parties (if applicable) to provide to Purchaser and its agents all information reasonably necessary to permit Purchaser to ascertain the amount to be paid to Purchaser and initiate such electronic check or ACH transactions from a bank account approved by Purchaser ("Bank Account"). This authorization shall only be revoked with the prior written consent of Purchaser. Merchant agrees to pay an insufficient funds fee as stated on Page One (1) of this Agreement, if any electronic check or ACH transaction is rejected or dishonored. Additionally, the Bank Account may not be closed and Merchant's agreement with the Credit Card Processors cannot be amended or terminated without the prior written consent of Purchaser. In the event that Purchaser determines, in its sole discretion, that the Bank or the authorized Credit Card Processor utilized by Merchant is no longer acceptable, Merchant shall, upon receipt of written notice from the Purchase, have five (5) business days to terminate its relationship with the Bank or its Credit Processor and to open a new Bank Account or enter into a similar Processing Agreement with a new Bank or Credit Card Processor. Merchant agrees to execute any and all documents and/or agreement(s) in order to satisfy this Section.

SECTION 4.2 UNAUTHORIZED ACTIONS. Purchaser is neither responsible nor shall it be liable for any actions undertaken by the Bank or Merchant's Credit Card Processor which are not contemplated or authorized by this Agreement or the Processing Agreement to be entered into by and between Merchant and the Credit Card Processor. Merchant and Guarantor(s), by execution of this Agreement, hereby agrees to indemnify and hold Purchaser, its officers, directors and shareholders harmless against all losses, damages, claims, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) from any and all actions of the Bank or the Credit Card Processor.

SECTION 4.3 FEES. Purchaser and Merchant understand that the Bank and the Credit Card Processor will charge a fee or commission to Merchant for processing electronic checks, ACH transactions and receipts representing Future Sale Proceeds. Both parties further understand that the amount due to Purchaser under this Agreement shall be based solely upon the net amount due to Merchant from the Future Sale Proceeds after deducting the Bank and Credit Card Processor's fee or commission from the Future Sale Proceeds.

SECTION 4.4 AUTHORIZATION TO OBTAIN INFORMATION. During the entire time period that this Agreement shall be in force and effect, Merchant hereby authorizes Purchaser to:

- a. Contact any Bank or Credit Card Processor used by the Merchant (current or prior) in order to obtain whatever information Purchaser deems it may require regarding Merchant's transactions with any such Bank or Credit Card Processor. Such information shall include, but is not limited to, information Purchaser deems necessary to verify the amount of Future Sale Proceeds previously received or processed on behalf of Merchant and any and all fees which may have been charged to Merchant by the Bank or Credit Card Processor; and

- b. Contact any Bank or Credit Card Processor of Merchant (current or prior) in order to confirm that Merchant is exclusively using the Bank Account and the Credit Card Processor.

ARTICLE 5: BINDING ACCEPTANCE

SECTION 5.1 BINDING AGREEMENT. Upon execution of this Agreement, each of the parties subject to this Agreement shall be obligated under this Agreement, and shall be subject to all of the terms and condition stated in this Agreement. The person executing this Agreement represents and warrants that he/she is authorized to bind Merchant to all of the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and that all of the information provided herein is true, and accurate in all respects. Purchaser's payment of the Purchase Price shall be deemed Purchaser's acceptance of this Agreement, notwithstanding Purchaser's failure to execute this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6: REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

SECTION 6.1 REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND COVENANTS. Merchant hereby represents, warrants and covenants that as of this date, and during the term of this Agreement, Merchant shall:

- a. Exclusively use the Bank Account for the deposit of all proceeds of all sales;
- b. Exclusively use the Credit Card Processor for the processing of all of its Credit Card transactions;
- c. Not individually, nor through any of its affiliates, agents or employees ("Merchant Parties") take any action to discourage the use of credit and or debit cards which are settled through the Credit Card Processor or permit any event to occur which may have an adverse effect on the use, acceptance or authorization of credit and or debit cards for the purchase of Merchant's services and products;
- d. Not close the Bank Account or cease to use the Bank Account as the sole account into which to deposit all Future Sale Proceeds;
- e. Not amend or terminate, or consent to the termination of:

- h. Not change or permit the change of the Bank or Credit Card Processor or add an additional Bank to hold deposits of Merchant or Credit Card Processor, in each case, without providing Purchaser at least fifteen (15) business days prior written notice of such change;
- i. Not sell, dispose, convey or otherwise transfer its business or all or any substantial portion of its assets (whether in the usual course of business or not), in each case, without the express written consent of the Purchaser, and Purchaser or assignee's assumption of all of Merchant's obligations under this Agreement pursuant to the documentation reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser;
- j. Not sell, dispose, convey or otherwise transfer any of its Future Sale Proceeds;
- k. Not grant any security interest or lien upon its Future Sale Proceeds, accounts receivable or other assets;
- l. Not sell, dispose, convey or otherwise transfer its business or assets without the express prior written consent of Purchaser (and acknowledges that any approved sale or other disposition of assets shall provide for the assumption of all of Merchant's obligations under this Agreement by the purchaser or transferee of the business or assets pursuant to documentation reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser);
- m. Not incur any debt on the business not incurred in the ordinary course of business without the express prior written consent of Purchaser;
- n. Not divert any cash, checks, electronic transactions, or other Future Sale Proceeds in any manner or to any person, location or account, other than the Bank Account; and
- o. Not commit fraud against Purchaser.

SECTION 6.2 ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIONS. Merchant hereby represents, warrants and covenants that as of this date, Merchant:

- a. has no open cash advances with another cash advance funding company or, if Merchant has an open cash advance with another cash advance funding company, Merchant will disclose such information to Purchaser and allow Purchaser to use funds from Purchase Price to pay off the current balance;

SECTION 6.3 TRUTHFULNESS OF INFORMATION. The information provided by or on behalf of Merchant to Purchaser in connection with the execution of, or pursuant to this Agreement, is and shall be true and correct in all material respects. Merchant shall furnish Purchaser with such other information as Purchaser may request from time to time, including all information necessary to permit Purchaser and its agents to determine the amount to be paid to Purchaser and to initiate electronic check or ACH transactions from the Bank Account.

SECTION 6.4 RELIANCE. Merchant acknowledges that the information provided by Merchant has been relied upon by Purchaser in connection with its decision to purchase the Future Sale Proceeds.

SECTION 6.5 COMPLIANCE WITH THE LAW. Merchant possesses and is in compliance with all permits, approvals, consents, and other authorizations necessary to conduct its business. SECTION 6.7 INSURANCE. Merchant shall maintain insurance in such amount and against such risks as are consistent with past practice and the applicable standard in Merchant's industry, and shall show proof of such insurance simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, and upon the reasonable request of Purchaser in the future, within three (3) business days of such request.

SECTION 6.8 BUSINESS NAME. Merchant shall not conduct its business under any name other than as disclosed to the Bank and the Credit Card Processor and Purchaser or change any of its places of business. In addition, Merchant shall not change its legal name, entity type, or state information, unless it has provided Purchaser with at least thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof, and copies of any and all documents, agreements and information reasonably requested by Purchaser with respect thereto.

SECTION 6.9 INDUSTRY STANDARD. The Merchant shall continue to conduct its business consistent with its industry's standard and past practice, and shall comply with all the terms and conditions of its deposit account agreement with the Bank and its Processing Agreement with the Credit Card Processor. Furthermore, Merchant covenants, warrants and represents that Merchant will constantly perform all appropriate Due Diligence and credit checks of all of the customers' finances, cash flow, solvency, good faith, payment histories and business reputations (the "Due Diligence Requirements") as may be commercially reasonable to ensure any and all products and/or services provided, sold or delivered by Merchant to said customers will be paid for by customers in full and on time, and will not result in the creation of an unpaid account. This is not a guaranty of payment by Merchant's customers, but is an obligation of commercially reasonable Due Diligence investigation and credit check of customers before extending credit to them and continuing no less frequently than monthly so long as sums are still due.

Merchant and Guarantor expressly and irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York. So far as is permitted under the applicable law, this consent to personal jurisdiction shall be self-operative and no further instrument or action, other than service of process, shall be necessary in order to confer jurisdiction upon the person of Merchant and/or Guarantor in any such court. SCHEDULE A: ADDENDUM TO MCA CONSOLIDATION PROGRAM AGREEMENT

DATED 7/19/2023

SCHEDULED PURCHASES OF FUTURE RECEIVABLES

Your Company, GCC Partners Incorporated /DBA: GCC Enviromental (hereinafter referred to as "Company" or "Client"), and Jessica Glenn (hereinafter referred to as "Guarantor") are entering into this Agreement with Fenix Capital Funding, LLC (hereinafter referred to as "FNX") wherein your Company is obtaining funding through the sale of its future receivables to FNX. Company will collect the payments on these receivables and allow FNX to retrieve them through ACH payments from the client's designated bank account. This MCA Consolidation Program sets a schedule for purchases of Company's accounts receivable. Participation in this Program requires that clients adhere to the obligations set forth in this document, which are required in addition to those spelled out in the attached Future Receivable Purchase Agreement. Below are the terms regarding FNX's purchase of Company's receivables.

Term Outline:

The Purchase Price for your receivables under this Program (Amount paid to Company): $ 12,500.00;

Amount of Purchased Receivables during the terms of this Agreement: $ 18,625.00;

Specified Percentage: 11 % (the ratio of Receivables Purchased for the amount of purchase price).

Daily ACH retrieved from your bank account by FNX (paid each banking day): $ 143.27;

First week funding will be less any applicable fees.

Payment/Purchase Schedule:

The aforementioned Purchase of your merchant's receivable will take place in Weekly installments for 5 weeks, according to the Schedule below (Schedule A):

Week	Advance	Week	Advance
1	$ 8,446.00	4	$ 790.00
2	$ 790.00	5	$ 790.00
3	$ 790.00

Buyout Option for Receivables: If during the term of this Agreement, Merchant decides to purchase FNX's interest in Merchant's receivables, it can do so on a discounted basis (thus saving money). The terms for each buyout option are unique in that they may simply allow for an accelerated payment schedule or may consist of a lump sum buyout for purchased receivables. You are urged to contact your FNX representative and discuss the terms of any potential buyout. You could preserve a lot of capital if you do.

Covenants of Agreement:

Pursuant to our agreement, Guarantor is authorized to bind Company and Guarantor to the terms of this Agreement. It is agreed that Company shall not enter into any Merchant Cash Advances, arrangement, agreement or commitment that encumbers, liens, relates to or involves Company receivables, whether in the form of a purchase of, a loan against, collateral against or the sale or purchase of credits against, Receivables) or future check sales with any party other than Fenix Capital Funding, LLC ("FNX").

It is hereby agreed and understood that the terms of this MCA Consolidation Program include that the following obligations:

- There will be no negative balance at any time during the term of this Program;
- There will be no return payments for any existing advances;
- There will be no return payments for any of the consolidated funding;
- There shall be NO further additional funding (Sales of Receivables) without the explicit written consent of FNX. There shall be no blocking or prevention of access to bank login or decision logic affecting FNX;
- There shall be no modification or amendment of payments on any advance

Default:

Should there be a failure to meet any of the above-given terms of this MCA Consolidation Program, it is understood that (at FNX's sole discretion) Company can be in default and out of the MCA Consolidation Program. The consequences of being pushed out of the MCA Consolidation Program are as follows:

- 1) Automatically, additional purchases of receivables as scheduled under the Agreement shall cease; and 2) Company shall be obligated to allow FNX to retrieve all receivables purchased on or before the declaration of default to be collected in such manner as FNX deems appropriate in its sole discretion, including, without limitation, daily draws on the Company's bank account until the full amount of the receivables purchased is realized. The same specified percentage will apply to this amount.
- 2) Should FNX determine in its sole discretion that Company's breach of its covenant not to obtain further MCA obligations is severe enough to call into question the likelihood or viability of FNX's ability to retrieve the receivables it had already purchased on the date of default, FNX reserves the right to immediately pursue legal action against Company, prior to the end of the term for the original MCA Consolidation Program in order to protect the value of its purchased receivables.

I hereby agree that I will not take out another Merchant Cash Advance without explicit written consent of FNX. Terms of the original agreement must be met or additional funding becomes forfeit at the discretion of FNX. Other terms include, Merchant/Merchant cannot stack additional funding, must have successful daily payback each day or additional funding may be determined as forfeited per the terms of the original agreement. If all terms of the Future Receivable Purchase Agreement are not met this will be a default and all funding will stop, see terms of default in Future Receivable Purchase Agreement.

You have been approved for our MCA consolidation funding request. You are currently paying $ 158.00 per day in your cash advances to other lender(s) and under this new Fenix Capital Funding, LLC Consolidation Program, you will be paying $ 143.27 Daily; thus you will be initially saving $ 14.73 per day with additional capital to help your business grow. Fenix Capital Funding, LLC's MCA consolidation funding program works as follows: We will be wiring to your bank account each week a set amount of funds as described in the 'Schedule A' of your Future Receivable Purchase Agreement. Those funds should be set aside so that you can make your weekly payment to the other lenders. FNX will be ACH'ing your bank account daily for our payment as stated in the Future Receivable Purchase Agreement. As long as you make the FNX payment each day, we will provide the weekly funding which will allow you to eliminate some or all of your cash advances from other companies while improving your cash flow. Also of importance in our final contract terms and conditions that are attached to this message is that you are not allowed to take any OTHER cash advances during the term of our agreement. We might provide you with the additional cash in the future if certain conditions exist in your business. Again, the purpose of the Fenix Capital Funding, LLC MCA consolidation funding program is for you to move away from cash advance companies. If you plan on taking this consolidation restructuring deal AND getting additional cash advances from others during the contract, then do not proceed with this Future Receivable Purchase Agreement because you will be violating our agreement and defeating its purpose. This will also place you in immediate default and aggressive action to collect will begin immediately.
